Further exploration

There is more than you can imagine.

As the main focus of this book was solely on star influences, for those into planetary forms of magick, each relationship between the star and a different planet opens the door to a new kind of energies and behavior. Explanations of influences between stars and planets can be found in book by Vivian E. Robson.

Besides lots of great books on various library websites, images from Wikipedia, Google search and anything in between that helped me in process of sigil creation, here are some of the sources I want to mention as a form of thanks.
